

Hell By Choice

Victor Zhang, Adarsh Patel, Jake Sanpaul, Mohammed Kibria, Garlo Aridou

A Self-Made & Sustained Hell

- The concept of being sent to hell follows the rule of being held there indefinitely.
- This hell which our characters are in is something that is self-created and does not follow this rule.
- This self-created hell focuses on the characters psychological torture, with each character being each other's torturer.

The Choice

What does staying inside and leaving the room mean?

- The room = hell
- Characters were sent there because of different but similar reasons
- To leave the room that they were sent to, in order to torture and be tortured by others means...

Garcin's Reasons

- Need for validation
- Avoiding responsibility
- Self-Doubt

Was I that much of a coward Inez?

Inez's Reasons

- Sadistic enjoyment
- Perception from Others
- Acceptance of Hell

Why do you like this, LOSER
Estelle?

Estelle's Reasons

- Need for attention
- Need for desire
- Avoiding Guilt

NO GARCIN!
DON'T LISTEN TO HER!

Conclusion

- Although they were each others tormentors and had to choice to walk away from this torment, they were tied by their own flaws which were complimented by their torturers.

Questions

- Have you ever been judgmental, and have you changed since then?
- Have you ever did something that you regret, but have embraced it from a certain point onwards?